MEET THE HOST:

Lydia Tate
“Good Work Waco”

Lydia Tate is a passionate advocate for community development and nonprofit work in Waco, Texas. With two decades of experience in nonprofit leadership and community outreach, she brings a megaphone to the incredible work being done by local organizations in and around Waco.

Through Good Work, Waco!, Lydia shines a spotlight on the organizations working tirelessly to advocate for their causes, champion their needs, and bring connection to our amazing community. Each episode features an engaged conversation with a community nonprofit leader discussing their mission and what makes them tackle hard work. Inspiring stories and calls to action for volunteers, donors, and even clients makes Good Work Waco an important resource for community action.
